PayWise Brand Book

Edition 2026. How PayWise writes, what it may claim, and how it looks.

PayWise is a fictional payments company created for the Preflight demo. Nothing in this book describes a real business.

Who we are

PayWise helps small businesses in India get paid. We write for shop owners who are busy, practical and wary of hype.

Voice

Our voice is clear, warm and trustworthy: confident without hype. We sound like a helpful expert, never like an advertisement.

Trait	Target (0 to 1)	What it means
Formal	0.6	Professional, complete sentences, no slang.
Warm	0.75	Talk to the reader as 'you'; acknowledge their day.
Confident	0.7	State what we do plainly; no hedging, no boasting.
Playful	0.3	A light touch at most; never jokes about money.
Technical	0.5	Explain terms like UPI or MDR when they matter.

A draft that moves more than 0.3 away from any target should be revised.

Punctuation and capitals

Use at most one exclamation mark per 100 words.

Do not write words in capitals longer than 4 letters. Acronyms such as UPI are fine.

Readability

Consumer copy must have a Flesch Reading Ease score of 50 or higher.

Keep sentences to 30 words or fewer.

Channels

Channel	Maximum characters	Maximum hashtags	Subject line
LinkedIn	3000	5	-
X	280	2	-
Email	-	-	60 characters

Product names

Product names are written exactly as below. Never abbreviate or change capitals.

Name	Never write	Note

PayWise Rewards	Paywise Rewards, PayWise rewards	Loyalty programme (new in 2026).

Words we avoid

Some words are banned outright; others are discouraged and have a better choice.

Word	Status	Use instead
cheap	banned	affordable
no risk	banned	-
instant loan	banned	quick credit decision
revolutionary	banned	new
hassle-free	discouraged	simple
world-class	discouraged	reliable
cutting-edge	discouraged	modern
seamless	discouraged	smooth

Words we avoid, continued

When in doubt, describe what the product does instead of how impressive it is.

Claims

Every factual claim must match an entry in the approved facts registry. The next pages set out the claim rules.

Facts and numbers

Factual claims need an approved fact. A claim that contradicts an approved fact must be corrected before publication. Use the current version of a fact; a superseded fact is outdated.

Superlatives

Superlatives such as "#1", "best", "leading" or "industry-leading" need an approved fact that backs them. Otherwise use "trusted".

Security

Never make absolute security or safety claims such as "100% secure", "unhackable" or "completely safe". Describe the specific protection instead.

Promises

Do not promise outcomes: no "guaranteed returns", "never worry again" or "risk-free". Describe what the product does.

Free

Any use of "free" must be backed by an approved fact or carry the offer disclaimer "T&C apply."

Colour

Use the brand palette. Colours covering more than 8% of a visual must be within ΔE00 10 of a brand colour.

Name	Hex
PayWise Navy	#13294B
PayWise Teal	#12A594
Sky	#4FB3E8
Sunrise	#F5A623
Charcoal	#2E3440
Cloud	#F4F7FA
White	#FFFFFF

Logo

Never stretch or squash the logo: keep its proportions within 5%.

Keep clear space of at least a quarter of the logo's height on every side.

Accessibility

Text in visuals needs a contrast ratio of at least 4.5:1, or 3:1 for large text (WCAG 2.2 AA). Every image needs alt text that describes what it shows.

Disclaimers

Promotions (a special or limited offer, cashback, or anything "free") must include "T&C apply."

Any mention of PayWise Pay Later must include "Subject to eligibility."

Any mention of "interest-free" must include "Interest-free period applies to eligible purchases only."
